1A Hats! Part 1—(For Directors and FCCH owners ONLY!)

Jacquelin Montgomery, Infant Toddler Specialist “Emeritus”
Jacque has designed this session just for Directors & FCCH owners! You wear so many different hats! We will look at the many hats you wear and how you might wear them most effectively! She is excited to move beyond the Infant Toddler experience with this workshop! (Must attend 2A)

1B Children Know When People They Love Are Fighting

Wanda Hardison, FCS Agent, NCCE, Harnett Cty Ctr
Economically difficult times can create the perfect environment for disagreement and fighting between parents and family members. Learn how to recognize different forms of hostile fighting, their impact on children’s development and behavior, and strategies for reducing this behavior among adults.

1C Grief and Loss

Pam Pace and Ann Carter, Region 13 Behavior Specialists
Everyone deals with loss and grief, even young children. Participants will learn how children process death and loss at even the earliest of ages, possible effects on behavior, and how caring adults can help.

1D Color Me Healthy

Candy Underwood, FCS Agent, NCCE, Cumberland Cty
Color Me Healthy is an innovative program that uses color, music, and exploration of the senses to teach four and five year old children that eating healthy food and participating in physical activity is fun. Participants will receive a resource kit.

1E Music in Children’s Reading Literature: Using Music to Teach Listening Skills and Pre-reading Concepts, 2nd Ed.

Ran Whitley, Professor of Music Education, Campbell Univ.
Many musical concepts are contained in children’s literature. Many reading concepts are contained in music. This session will integrate these concepts to help prepare preschoolers to be more reading-ready. This interactive session will require movement. Musical ability is not required.

1F All Hands On Board: The importance of adding messy play to your curriculum

Harnett County Parents As Teachers (PAT) Staff
Use of paint, clay and other such “messy” art supplies are important to the learning process! Get tips on creating homemade supplies and how to make the clean-up process easier and more manageable.

Session 2 Workshops

2A Hats! Part 2—(For Directors and FCCH owners ONLY!)

Jacquelin Montgomery, Infant Toddler Specialist “Emeritus”
See description for 1A ... Must attend 1A.

2B The Upset Tummy Stops Here!

Audrey Kreske PhD, Postdoctoral Research Ass. & Ellen Thomas, Graduate Research Associate, NCSU’s Dept. of Food, Bioprocessing, and Nutrition Sciences
Identify areas where you can take steps to prevent foodborne illness. Learn about: food handler hygiene, safe food sources, temperature control, cross-contamination and sanitation.

2C Playful Pedagogy: Expanding children’s potential through play

Linda Kinney, NC Zoo Education
Explore the importance of play in children’s lives and the art and science of supporting children’s play outdoors. Learn how play engages the brain. Playful, inspired, engaged adults can expand children’s potential to explore and experience through play! This session is interactive and combines active play, hands-on activities and informal discussions.

2D Inclusion ... or Intrusion?

Dr. David Dennis, Special Education Coordinator, Campbell University
A discussion involving teacher, administrator, parent and student reflections on the inclusion of special needs students into regular education environments.

2E Homework 911

Jan Waugh, Region 13 School Age Specialist
Does the word “homework” make your head spin? Come and learn how to put homework “in its place” within the “big picture” of after school!

2F Bad Boys, Bad Boys ... Whatcha Gonna Do?

David Tillman, Exceptional Children Program Coordinator, Harnett Cty Schools
Data suggests that boys, in particular, have difficulty being successful in our current learning environments. Learn how, from early childhood, we can meet the specific needs of boys without reinforcing problematic stereotypes.

Luncheon - Marshbanks Dining Hall

Keynote Address - Stress!

Adults and Children Face It ... Learn Effective Ways To Cope!

Dr. Harriet Enzor, Professor of Education and Counseling at Campbell University

Session 3 Workshops

3A Frugal Ways to Use Your Food Dollars

Deborah Cade, CACFP Administrative Manager and Tammy Matthews, CACFP Monitor and Child Watch (software) Trainer
