

OPERATION MEDICINE DROP

Wednesday March 17, 2010 from 4:00pm to 8:00pm

9 locations in Harnett County

Let Operation Medicine Drop protect your family----Take your unused and expired medications to a drop off-off site where law enforcement can dispose of them properly. Bring prescription and over-the-counter medicines to the take-back event and keep them out of the wrong hands.

This event is hosted by Safe Kids North Carolina in partnership with Harnett County Law Enforcement Agencies-Harnett County Sheriff's Office, Angier Police Department, Coats Police Department, Dunn Police Department, Erwin Police Department and Lillington Police Department.

Locations in Harnett County:

Angier: Angier Municipal Building

Coats: Carlie C's IGA-379 N. McKinley St.

Erwin: Town Hall-100 W. F. Street

Dunn: Walmart

Lillington: Both Food Lions-Crossroads Square Hwy. 401, and The Square at Lillington

Lillington: Boone Trail Fire Department-7016 US 421 N.

Cameron: Food Lion-133 Mittie Haddock Rd. (Hwy. 87)

Spring Lake: Food Lion-3260 Ray Rd.

For more information visit <http://www.ncdoi.com/OSFM/safekids/default.asp>